

Amnesty International

UK: DON'T TURN A BLIND EYE TO TORTURE

Mass demonstration at Downing Street
Sunday 27 November 2005

Assemble at 1pm

Demonstration from 1.30-2.30pm

Please wear black

Torture is repugnant, abhorrent and immoral.

The UK Government is seeking agreements to return people to countries known to use torture. Agreements have been signed with Jordan and Libya and are being sought with Algeria and other countries. They are not worth the paper they are written on.

The law is clear. States must never torture people and must never send people to countries where they might be tortured.

Now is the time to tell the UK Government:
Don't turn a blind eye to torture

Amnesty International

UK: DON'T TURN A BLIND EYE TO TORTURE

Mass demonstration at Downing Street
Sunday 27 November 2005

Assemble at 1pm

Demonstration from 1.30-2.30pm

Please wear black

Torture is repugnant, abhorrent and immoral.

The UK Government is seeking agreements to return people to countries known to use torture. Agreements have been signed with Jordan and Libya and are being sought with Algeria and other countries. They are not worth the paper they are written on.

The law is clear. States must never torture people and must never send people to countries where they might be tortured.

Now is the time to tell the UK Government:
Don't turn a blind eye to torture